THE POSTAL APPROPRIATION BILL.

Washington, D. C., March 27.—[Special.]—The Senate has finally disposed of the Postal appropriation bill after an angry debate, and at 6 o'clock this afternoon Senator Gorman, Democrat, of Maryland, moved that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the bill to amend the act to provide for the better organization of the Treasury Department, and for other purposes. Mr. Gorman, in the absence of the chairman of the Committee on Finance, was expected to call up the bill, which is a measure designed to prevent the importation of adulterated and impure teas. Mr. Gorman's motion was agreed to, and the bill was taken up.

Mr. Gorman said that he had hoped that the bill would be passed without discussion, but he was willing to allow a reasonable time for its consideration. He thought that the bill would be passed by the Senate before the end of the week.

Mr. Hoar said that he was willing to allow a reasonable time for the consideration of the bill, but he thought that the Senate should not be asked to consider it at this late hour of the session. He thought that the bill should be allowed to go over until the next session of Congress.

The members of the Fourth Congressional Committee of this city have all kindly agreed to call for a District Convention for the election of delegates to the Baltimore Convention to be held the 14th of April. The primaries are fixed for the afternoon of the previous day.

Senator Fessenden, one of the oldest men of the oldest men in America, has yesterday elected to Congress from the Seventh District of South Carolina, to the place of Congressman Rhett, deceased. There was no opposition, Mr. Smith is a Republican. He has already served a term in Congress.

Citizens and town farmers generally to-day to the belief that the Cooper which has broken out among the cattle of Allegheny County and other parts of this State and near Wayside, is dying, is not foot-and-mouth disease, but typhoid. Some of the veterinary surgeons also incline to this belief.

At Independence Hall Convention was held at Providence, R. I., yesterday. It nominated George H. Carlos for Governor, and appointed a committee to confer with the Democrats about the other State officers. Gen. Alex. McClure, the predominant Democratic editor of the Philadelphia Press, gave a dinner at Washington last night to Senator Carlile, Congressmen Morrison, and Reed Wisconsin. It is thought that no effort was made on the occasion to bring about an understanding between the warring factions of the Democratic party.

At a meeting of agriculturists in Toronto, Ont., yesterday, it was stated that a range of cattle suffering from the foot-and-mouth disease was recently located in Portland, Me. Another speaker said that he thought it would be wise to prohibit the importation of cattle from England to reign to keep the disease out of Canada, which has so far escaped heavily free it.

At a meeting of the Veterinary Association of the United States at Boston yesterday, resolutions were adopted attributing the spread of the foot-and-mouth disease in the vicinity of Portland, Me., to the carelessness of the sanitary officers at that place, charging the United States quarantine authorities with being incompetent, and demanding a larger representation for the members of the veterinary profession on the Cattle Commission.

Mr. Wadsworth's attack on Seward is simply resented by the Democratic politicians, and it is believed it will tend to widen the breach between the factions of the Democratic party. Mr. Morrison continues feud to his determination to push the Tariff bill. The New York Democratic Convention will hold a mass-meeting Friday night to urge the adoption of the measure. Mr. Dodd-Smith will make the principal speech in support of this policy.

Lieutenant Duncanson at Washington was sent on the shelves of General J. Tilden from his brother's funeral a few days ago, although it took place within a few hours' ride by rail of Washington. It is thought that he did not attend because he did not want to have the public know how weak and feeble he is physically. The feeling Democrat goes to the extent of asserting that Tilden is "dead from the hat to his neck."

Judge Fuller, who represents the Northern district of this State in Congress, will at an early day make an effort to pass the bill proposing to forfeit the unearned land-grant of the Northern Pacific Road. The attorneys and agents of that corporation will make a vigorous fight against the measure. They claim that Congress has not the power to forfeit the grant, because the 100 conferring the land on the corporation makes no provision therefor, and the Government, by various acts, such as permitting the construction of portions of the road after the date provided in the original bill and the sale of the lands at double the Government price, has tacitly assented the ownership of the company to the grants.

There is great indignation among the Democrats most patriotic and Democratic of New York City over Hon. Cleveland's approval of the Roosevelt Maternity bill. They denounce the measure "unbecoming," "subversive of republican principles," and are supporting in their abuse of Cleveland. Respectable citizens of all parties, however, approve the Governor's action. He threw Gage Abbie 3 027 votes in giving New York good and economical government. The Democratic talk of running John Kelly for Mayor as a protest against the measure, and their own measure of silliness, hospitals, and native harvest, Kelly's friends are not the O'Brien Republicans to carry out the scheme.

FITZ JOHN PORTER.

An Interesting Statement Bearing on the Question of His Guilt.

The Master-Court-Martial Said to Have Favored His Exoneration.

What Gen. Garfield Said About the Case—A Chapter of Many Facts.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

Painesville, O., March 8.—[Special Correspondence.]—Mr. H. V. Boynton, formerly managing editor of the Cincinnati Gazette, Washington, D. C., and now a resident of Painesville, was interviewed regarding the Fitz John Porter affair by a Tribune reporter today, with the following result:

Mr. Boynton said he was one of the witnesses called to testify before the Schofield court-martial, of which Maj.-Gen. David Hunter was President and Gen. Schofield a member, and was also a witness before the Retiring Board of majority convened to review the findings of Schofield's court. Gen. Hunter, as President of Hayes's Commission, and Gen. Garfield, the further said:

"I met Gen. Garfield after our return to Washington in the winter of 1879, and conversed with him somewhat at length regarding the Porter matter. He was then, as such a leading member of Congress, in receipt of many letters from all parts of the country, addressed to the Republican editor in the Republican office, and to other Republicans, asking for information about it. The Republican office and staff in other departments of State and on Senator Conkling's committee, the Senator himself, and on Senator Hoar's committee, had been obliged to give much time to the consideration of this matter, and to answer many letters. Gen. Garfield, as a member of the Retiring Board, had given much time to the consideration of the case, and, as Senator Logan's late speech, Gen. Garfield said he was not in sympathy with the original findings of the court, and that he had made a report to the Retiring Board in favor of the restoration of Porter to the army. The Retiring Board, by a majority of one, had reported against Porter, and Gen. Garfield had made the minority report. Gen. Garfield said that he had been unable to find any evidence that Porter had been guilty of disobedience of orders, or that he had been guilty of treason, or that he had been guilty of any of the charges preferred against him. He said that the court-martial had been composed of officers who were personally hostile to Porter, and that the whole proceedings of the court-martial were characterized by a spirit of prejudice and hostility to Porter. Gen. Garfield said that the court-martial had been packed against SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 11.—[Special.]—Another heavy harvest do not take much to the shelves of foot-and-mouth disease, for the cases that have been reported within the last week are from various sections. Dr. Pearce, the State veterinarian, who has been in attendance to their appointed rounds, has been unusually busy. Most of cattle in Sangamon, McLean and Tazewell, in Wisconsin, were affected with the disease, and there have been a few cases in the cattle having been from other counties. Dr. Pearce has been in the cattle during early winter. Four of the cattle died, and there was an epidemic of bleeding at Lexington.

A GOOD CROP OF GRASSHOPPERS.

SAN JOSE, Ill., March 11.—[Special.]—The Times-Herald's correspondent has Saturday for a meeting of farmers residing near Six-and-Three-Quarter Grove. He understands the farmers of that section have the grasshopper eggs have been unusually plentiful in that locality, and that they are determined to destroy the pests. They will meet at the Grove, and will have with them a number of wagons, which they will fill with the eggs and burn them. The farmers have also decided to employ a watchman to guard the eggs so as to prevent the boys who have organized a club for the purpose of killing the grasshoppers from stealing them.

INDIANA.

WASHINGTON, Ind., March 11.—[Special.]—Dr. F. D. Pigman and Miss Hattie, both born in the Brushy Fork neighborhood, this county, were married in this city last night. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Pigman, a well-known resident of this county, and has been living with her parents for some time. The groom is a young physician of this city, and has been practicing here for about a year. He is a graduate of the Medical College of Indiana, at Indianapolis, and has a large practice.

MICHIGAN.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 11.—[Special.]—Ex-Mayor Hazelton, who has been confined to his home for several weeks by illness, is reported to-day as being much better, and it is thought he will be able to be out in a few days. Mr. Hazelton is a prominent lawyer of this city, and has been Mayor for two terms. He is also a member of the Board of Education, and has been a director of the Grand Rapids & Indiana Railroad Company for many years.

MISSOURI.

WEST PLAINS, Mo., March 11.—[Special.]—Judge Cockrell, in a letter written to-day, acknowledged the receipt of a copy of the resolutions passed last Saturday by a meeting of farmers residing near Six-and-Three-Quarter Grove. He commends the farmers of that section for the prompt action they have taken to protect the harvest of the fruit-and-berry crop from the ravages of the grasshopper. He thinks that he is safe in the provisions to confer upon the Governor authority to appoint such property as it does fit. The movement has spread to other counties, and will be given the same right to protect such property as it does fit.
